

CHEERS TO BEYOND ORDINARY EVERYDAY

OCEAN EXPERIENCE 2024

Ocean®

A woman with dark curly hair, wearing a bright blue button-down shirt, is smiling broadly and clapping her hands. She is holding a flute glass filled with a golden bubbly beverage. To her left, another person is partially visible, holding a glass of amber liquid with cinnamon sticks. To her right, another person is holding a glass of orange beverage with a slice of citrus. In the foreground, a white marble charcuterie board is set on a table, featuring crackers, cheese, blueberries, and sliced meats. A bottle of beer and a glass of green beverage are also visible on the table. The background shows a green vintage-style record player on a wooden table.

How to Select the Right Wine Glass

Bordeaux Glass

This glass shape is best with full-bodied red wines with high tannin content. The large bowl and a relatively straight opening allow the wine to breathe and direct it to the back of the mouth for optimal taste.

Burgundy Glass

This glass suits for light to medium-bodied red wines. A shorter, bigger bowl allows horizontal aeration and aroma concentration.

Red Wine Glass

This glass is a versatile option as it works well for most red wines.

White Wine Glass

Typically smaller than red wine glasses, the smaller bowl preserves the wine's crispness and acidity.

Flute Champagne Glass

Tall and narrow shape preserves the wine's bubbles and focuses the aromas towards the nose.
